

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER WITH CHILDREN

Forms are available online at www.sutter.courts.ca.gov or www.courts.ca.gov

Submit the following forms together as one document. They are your request for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order.

DV-100: Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order

DV-105: Request for Child Custody & Visitation Orders

DV-108: Request for Orders to Prevent Child Abduction

Make sure you complete all of the above documents completely, accurately, and be specific with your request.

When filing a request for a Domestic Violence Restraining Order, the court can issue a temporary order based on the information you submit in your request. Therefore, it is important to be specific and detailed with the information you are providing, especially in the description of abuse sections.

If the Court grants your request for a temporary restraining order, this order will remain in effect until your court date, which will be set no more than 21 calendar days later.

You will be provided with 3 certified copies. You will take 2 of the certified copies to the Sheriff's Department for service and you will keep a copy for yourself.

If the Court denies your request for temporary orders, you will still have a court date. At the court date, the court can terminate the temporary orders (if they were granted), make the temporary orders into long term orders, and/or make additional orders that the Court sees fit.

For the following forms, only complete the sections as directed in the instructions (the red writing). These forms will also need to be submitted with your Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order.
