GENERAL INFORMATION

A Petition for Custody and Support of Minor Children (FL-260) is used for individuals who have children and are married but living apart; or not married to the other parent of their child and parentage was established by one of the following: a Voluntary Declaration of Paternity or Parentage (POP) that has not been rescinded; a Department of Child Support Service case; or a 300 Dependency CPS case. The Petition will allow you to obtain orders about child custody, visitation, and/or child support.

There are jurisdictional requirements that must be met before the court can make child custody orders. These requirements include residency in this state for six months before filing the petition, and that there is no other state that has jurisdiction to make orders about the custody of this child.
